SEVENTH ANNUAL CITYLINKS CONFERENCE TO BE HELD AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio -- Miami Valley residents can learn how to encourage economic development in their neighborhoods and communities on Saturday, Oct. 26, at Citylinks '91, a daylong conference at the University of Dayton.

The keynote address on "Putting the Community in Economic Development" will be presented by Daniel Russell III, senior trainer from the Development Training Institute Inc. of Baltimore, Md.

Participants will attend two workshop sessions, choosing topics about using resources available at the University of Dayton, targeting economic development resources for community use, financial management for non-profit organizations, how to develop a strategic neighborhood development plan and more.

The cost is $15 per person or $25 for two. Lunch is included in the registration fee, and financial aid is available to those who qualify. The deadline for registration is Oct. 18.

Citylinks '91 is sponsored by UD's Strategies for Responsible Development-Neighborhood Development office and Neighbor to Neighbor Inc. For more information, call (513) 229-4641.
